FOR RELEASE
WEEK OF FRIDAY 8-27-04

DUBYA'S UKULELE FAREWELL PARTY TO TAKE PLACE AT THE FEZ UNDER TIME CAFÉ ON FRIDAY AUGUST 27, 2004

Ukuleles for Sanity (ukesanity.org) will present Dubya's Ukulele Farewell Party an evening of ukulele protest songs, largely mocking in nature, denouncing the policies of the Bush administration. The event will take place on Friday, August 27, at 8:00 pm, at the Fez Under Time Café (www.feznyc.com), located at 380 Lafayette Street at Great Jones in New York City. The phone number for the Fez is (212) 533-7000.

Price of admission is $15. Artists' proceeds from the event will be donated to United for Peace and Justice (www.unitedforpeace.org). The evening's emcee will be actress Ileana Douglas, star of "To Die For" and "Grace of My Heart."

Performers at Dubya's Ukulele Farewell Party will include acid folk rock legend Peter Stampfel of Holy Modal Rounders and Fugs fame, as well as Bar/None recording artists Songs From a Random House, whose latest album gListen is to be released on Tuesday, August 24. Also included on the bill are: anti-folk ukulele songster Carmaig de Forest, Kirk Kelly, LD Beghtol & the New Criticism, Michael Leviton, Kings County Queens, The Whisky Rebellion, Heather Lev, Skizz Cyzyk, Lloyd Gold, Uke Jackson, the Hoppin' Haole Brothers, Patsy Monteleone, Roger Greenawalt, and Sonic Uke.

Ukuleles for Sanity is a group of politically progressive ukulele musicians and enthusiasts who will be strumming ukuleles and marching in a "Ukulele National Guard" as part of the larger street protest against the Republican National Convention on Sunday, August 29, in New York. Their message, one of voter empowerment is: "The smallest voice can be a mighty force."

Doors for Dubya's Ukulele Farewell Party open at 7:00 pm.
